Dear recruiter,

I'm in search of something brand new. A graduate of Columbia College Chicago with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Advertising, my goal is to find exciting new projects to work on as a creative and continue learning more each day. I've taken on several roles as a copywriter, designer, producer, and director, and I'm prepared for what comes next.

My portfolio is diverse, and deliverables include long and short-form writing pieces, various forms of branding, print and digital ads, podcasts, music, radio spots, photography, and video work in B2B marketing, B2C advertising, event production, startups, sports, political agenda, and music. Brands I've worked with include Barack Obama, Whirlpool, Maytag, Lionsgate, Snapple, MGP Ingredients, Firestone Building Products, The Knicks Wall, Five to Nine, and more. My best work comes when working closely with a brand and helping to shape its identity, and I'm certain that taking on a creative role at your company will allow me to expand and grow my entire skill set.

I'm a versatile creator with a passion for many types of media. I can offer your company a clear, stylistic, and thorough writer/designer/producer with the ability to closely align himself with a brand's voice and is eager to continue growing. My portfolio can be found at anthonygcorbo.com and my resume has been attached to this application. Thank you for your consideration and I'm looking forward to speaking soon.

With gratitude,
Anthony G. Corbo
